FRIDAY | MAY 5 | 6 PM

CORNELL ART MUSEUM @ OLD SCHOOL SQUARE
DURING THE FIRST FRIDAY ART WALK

Visual art in 2D, 3D, photography and video, as well as installation pieces, have been created by the 25 students in grades 3-12 based on exploring their cultural role in a changing global community.

- Rock Band & Music students will perform
- WSOM will feature a live, man-on-the-street interview show
- Culinary Arts students will prepare and serve appetizers
- Mason Jar Munchies and Ocean Commotion Jewelry, both student-run enterprises, will be selling their products, along with pieces of the artwork
- “Dreamcatcher” installation piece, video, and photo challenge
- “We are the World” photo essays
- Creative Art pieces made by the students throughout the year, including paintings and printed notecards
- Sustainable Kitchen Table family plans for guests to take home

“The Many Cultures: One World” exhibit will be on display through May 7th. All art is available for purchase, and a percentage of proceeds will go to the artist, the UN Sustainable Development Goals program and to support programming at Space of Mind.
