NEWS RELEASE

Delray Beach Library is pleased to present

Artist Ron Burkhardt

“LANGUAGE AS ART FORM”

Bold Juxtapositions

Burkhardt’s Memory Fragments, Organic Colors and Abstract Letters

The exhibit is on display on the 2nd Floor Gallery from September 18th to December 18th

Ron Burkhardt is the originator of three genres of Contemporary Art-Notism (hieroglyphic memory fragments), Earth Art (large organic fields of paint fused with nature), LetterScapes (bold geometric color blocks of abstract words).

Honored with over 200 creative awards and exhibited in more than 70 galleries and museums worldwide, Burkhardt is known for his rhythmic scrawls, striking designs and rich colorations. He has been collected and exhibited internationally in a dozen countries including Italy, Japan, Germany, Brazil and Switzerland.

His Art has also sold at Art Basel, Sothebys and Phillips de Pury. Tri-coastal Burkhardt is a Florida resident, who splits his time between Palm Beach, New York, and California.

Delray Beach Public Library is pleased to host a reception to meet the artist 6 pm to 8 pm, Wednesday, September 22, 2021. This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.

Mr. Burkhardt will also present a talk about his work as the celebrated author of three genres of contemporary American art at 6 pm, Wednesday, December 8th at the Library. The Delray Beach Library Art Gallery is located at 100 Atlantic Avenue in Delray Beach. Parking is free and plentiful.
